Action/Prayer/FYI Item #3: Sign ACLJ's petition to say no to taxpayer's dollars being used to rebuild Hamas!

Hamas fired nearly 3,500 rockets at Israeli civilians.

It fired 600 rockets from schools and other civilian areas.

It used "humanitarian" aid intended for schools to build secret terror tunnels to invade Israel.

Israel responded in self-defense.

Israel has decimated Hamas terrorists and destroyed 32 terror tunnels.

Now the Obama Administration wants to give millions of our taxpayer dollars to rebuild Hamas.

Hamas is a recognized terrorist organization. Its goal is to destroy Israel.

New "aid" will only be used to subsidize terror.

We cannot allow this to happen.

I spent the last month abroad defending Israel's right to defend itself. We're on Capitol Hill working to stop new funding for terrorists.

But we need to hear from you now.

Bowing to Atheists, IRS Poised to Target Churches

The Internal Revenue Service is poised to start targeting churches. The IRS is reportedly bowing to the Freedom from Religion Foundation (FFRF), settling a lawsuit after the IRS promised to monitor churches for politicking. The settlement is being held up by Father Patrick Malone and Holy Cross Anglican Church, which filed an opposition to the motion to dismiss without prejudice. If FFRF dismisses the lawsuit without prejudice, the atheist organization can renew the lawsuit if the group deems the IRS is not targeting churches.

"Churches are tax-exempt inherently from the moment of creation," says Mat Staver, founder and chairman of Liberty Counsel. "Churches do not need a letter from the IRS to be tax-exempt. "No church has ever lost its tax-exempt status for opposing or supporting a candidate for political office. Churches and pastors may speak on biblical and moral issues."

Read more by accessing the following link:

<http://nationalblackroberegiment.com/militant-atheists-give-forcing-irs-censor-sermons/>

However, for those churches and ministries who have obtained a letter from the IRS to be tax-exempt you will want to read the following article.

501c3: The Devil's Church

<http://www.creationliberty.com/articles/501c3.php>

According to this article a 501c3 church corporation is by lawful state definition:

- The creator of a corporation is the State.
- The State is the sole authority and sovereign head over the corporation.
- The corporation is subject to the laws of the State which limits its powers.
- The corporation has no constitutionally protected rights.

- The corporation is an artificial person.
- The corporation submits to a State Charter declaring it is a creature of the State.
- The corporation is created for the benefit of the public.
- The corporation is a State franchise.
- The corporation is a privilege granted by the State.

Pastors, evangelists, missionaries, elders, deacons, watch this carefully because I need to make this abundantly clear. You have a 501c3 INCORPORATED status. That means your church is a corporation of the state. Here is the message that I, other preachers, and the IRS is trying to get you to understand about the contract you signed:

- The creator of your church is the State.
- The State is the sole authority and sovereign head over your church.
- Your church is subject to the laws of the State which limits its powers.
- Your church has no constitutionally protected rights.
- Your church is an artificial person.
- Your church submits to a State Charter declaring it is a creature of the State.
- Your church is created for the benefit of the public.
- Your church is a State franchise.
- Your church is a privilege granted by the State.

Before we continue, any Christian ought to be able to see the clear Biblical violations a 501c3 incorporated church is committing! Once a preacher has signed the papers, it does not matter who the pastor says his creator is when he's up on the pulpit, because he signed a document denouncing the Lord Jesus Christ as his creator, and put the state in His place. It does not matter who the pastor says is the sole authority and sovereign head over the church he's preaching at, because he signed a document declaring that the State has authority over the church of Christ. It does not matter who the pastor says gives Christians liberty, because he signed a document stating that no liberties can be taken within the church unless approved by state-granted privileges. The screams of violation to the Gospel are already deafening, and we have barely started looking into the depths of 501c3 status.

"A 501(c)(3) corporation, being an artificial person, is not considered a person under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution (religious liberty clause) or under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution (protection against self-incrimination clause). Therefore, an incorporated church has NO First or Fifth Amendment rights. In the case Johnson vs. Goodyear, 127 Cal.4 (1899): 'A corporation, being an artificial person, only has rights within the meaning of the due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution and similar provisions of State constitutions and within the meaning of state statutes.'" [i.e. Your 501(c)(3) church has no constitutional rights.]

Action/Prayer/FYI Item #5:

Barna: Many Pastors Wary of Raising 'Controversy' and speaking about relevant issues of the day for many different reasons. Instead many base the success of their church on attendance, giving, number of programs, number of staff, and square footage

Many theologically conservative pastors agree the Bible speaks to key issues of the day, but research indicates only a handful of them say they will speak to it. The key question asked, "What are the most likely reasons a pastor might refrain from preaching what the Bible says about controversial political issues?" (Select up to three) (Poll Closed)

Distaste for politics 9.03% (265 votes).

Threat of punishment by ACLU or IRS 31.86% (935 votes).

Unfamiliar with those issues 7.53% (221 votes).

Told to do so by elders/deacons 15.78% (463 votes)

Denominational constraints 13.15% (386 votes)

Believes politics, church are separate 23% (665 votes)

Total Votes: 2,935

“What we’re finding is that when we ask them about all the key issues of the day, [90 percent of them are] telling us, Yes, the Bible speaks to every one of these issues. Then we ask them: Well, are you teaching your people what the Bible says about those issues? – and the numbers drop ... to less than 10 percent of pastors who say they will speak to it.”

When researchers ask those pastors what else they are willing to do to get their people active in the political process, Barna said “it’s almost nothing.”

“So the thing that struck me has been that when we talk about the separation of church and state, it’s that churches have separated themselves from the activities of the state – and that’s to the detriment of the state and its people,” stated the researcher.

Why the disconnect? According to Barna, the answer is simple. He suggests asking pastors how someone would know if their church is “successful” – which he did.

“There are five factors that the vast majority of pastors turn to [when asked that question],” he explained. “Attendance, giving, number of programs, number of staff, and square footage.

“Now all of those things are good measures, except for one tiny fact: Jesus didn’t die for any of them,” Barna continued. “What I’m suggesting is [those pastors] won’t probably get involved in politics because it’s very controversial. Controversy keeps people from being in the seats, controversy keeps people from giving money, from attending programs.

“As they look at things, their tendency is to say, Well, that’s not part of my mission; my mission is to bring in more people and to get them to understand certain things that I feel they should know.”

Barna also thinks it has something to do with the training of pastors.

“When you look at what they get in Bible school or in the seminary, they are not taught to get people engaged in these particular issues,” he shared. “They are taught just to exegete scriptures; they are taught something about the history of where those scriptures came from – but they are not prepared.”

Barna is hoping that through the research they can encourage pastors as well as conservative voters across the country to be better informed and to be more active and more influential in the political process.

HAARP: Weather Control Is the HAARP Project a Weather Control Weapon?

Man has been playing with the weather since the 1940's. And, based on the changes in the weather patterns on a global basis, the use of HAARP by the powers to be may have huge ramifications and can cause tremendous harm when wanted. Here's a good place to start if you haven't been introduced to the concept...

This would be the first time that the Hawaiian Islands have been faced with a hurricane in 22 years! And, all this is taking place as voting is taking place in the state too! Is this a coincidence?

Glenn Beck

Just received this message from a crisis relief partner of Mercury One who is on the ground in Iraq helping deliver much needed aid.

He said that ISIS militants are only 10 minutes away from where they are serving refugees. He goes on to say, "Thousands more refugees fled into the city last night. UN evacuated it's station. Our team is remaining to serve as best as can for now." Please pray for these and other courageous volunteers and all those who are suffering around the globe from such human tragedy.

Just got another message moments ago. Some reports of the systematic beheading of kids by ISIS. PRAY!!!!

New York Oath Keepers Refute Accusations by State Intelligence Agency

Our New York State Chapter has written a letter of demand to the New York State Intelligence Center (NYSIC). Our New York Oath Keepers officers seek a public correction of that report which would exclude the use of our name in conjunction with "extremists" who may be considered "threats to law enforcement" and may be considered "anti-government".

The document to which NYOK is responding is available at the Infowars website:

<http://www.infowars.com/leaked-counter-terrorism-bulletin-warns-police-of-impending-far-right-violence/>

It is also available on the New York Oath Keeper website. It's a quick read, but an important one:

<http://www.newyorkoathkeeper.com/NYSIC-Bulletin-2014-0612.pdf>

Further, Bill Cooper has sent to me a link which shows the NYSIC to function with the Department of Homeland Security's fusion center for the State of New York, which of course means that the SPLC's influence graces the perceptions presented in that report on dangerous extremists - you know, people who voted for Ron Paul or who disapprove of U.S. involvement with the United Nations, etc. Here is that link:

<http://www.dhSES.ny.gov/oct/prevent-protect-prepare/index.cfm>

From that page:

"The Office of Counter Terrorism (OCT) supports federal, state, local, tribal and private sector efforts to prevent terrorism in variety of ways. Through the Safeguard New York program, OCT educates public and private sector stakeholders on how to spot and report suspicious activity that may be linked to terrorism. Safeguard New York promotes the "See Something, Say Something" campaign and the State's terrorism tips line (1-866-723-3967). Members of the OCT Intelligence Unit also staff the New York State Intelligence Center (NYSIC). Managed by the New York State Police, the NYSIC serves as the State's Fusion Center, bringing together federal, state and local agencies to analyze and share information related to terrorism and other crimes. Additionally, OCT provides terrorism threat briefings, counter terrorism training and grant resources used for programs and initiatives aimed at preventing and/or mitigating acts of terrorism."

Did we pay attention to that part which said, "Managed by the New York State Police, the NYSIC serves as the State's Fusion Center, bringing together federal, state and local agencies to analyze and share information related to terrorism and other crimes."

Fusion Centers, more than 70 of them at last count, are the connection between the Federal government and your local cop on the beat. Fusion Centers also enjoy a relationship with the U.S. Military and the U.S. Intelligence community. They are also in a cozy relationship with the Southern Poverty Law Center's psychotic geniuses who sell profiles of American social institutions, peoples, and cultural habits to the DHS and Pentagon. The SPLC not only helps DHS create the "new enemy" (Domestic Terrorists), it also trains police forces around the nation - maybe your own local police force.

The fingerprints of the SPLC are all over this NYSIC report to which New York Oath Keepers are objecting, and Oath Keepers national stands firmly behind the New York chapter in this request for a correction. It is very important that government error be confronted in meaningful ways. Our good neighbors in New York Oath Keepers have done so with this letter to the NYSIC.

Oath Keepers national salutes the good work of the New York Oath Keepers leadership. They've given the national Oath Keepers mission a great example for all of our chapters. All Oath Keepers will enjoy reading, below, this firmly-hitting letter to the New York State Intelligence Center. We hope that the NYSIC will accept NYOK's request for a meeting, and if NYSIC does agree to that meeting, I will ask Bill Cooper and his officers to furnish us with a detailed report of the outcome. Below is the text of their letter to the NYSIC.

Salute!
