

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Below are prayer/action items for both the nation and specifically for the state of Florida too.

Would you please send out these important prayer/action items in red below to your circles of influence and ask them to do the same? Don't forget to utilize social media like Face Book to propagate to everyone you know as well. This way we are utilizing the law of multiplication and together we can reach more prayer activists to invoke both prayer and action in an organized, focused fashion. Thank you and have a blessed day!

Oath Keepers is Going “Operational” by Forming Special “Civilization Preservation” Teams

Oath Keepers is instructing its 30,000 members nation-wide to form up special teams and sub-teams in each Oath Keepers chapter, at the town and county level, modeled loosely on the Special Forces “A Team” (Operational Detachment A ) model, and for a similar purpose: to be both a potential operational unit for community security and support during crisis, but also, as mission #1, to serve as training and leadership cadre, to assist in organizing neighborhood watches, organizing veterans halls to provide community civil defense, forming County Sheriff Posses, strengthening existing CERT, volunteer fire, search-and-rescue, reserve deputy systems, etc., and eventually to assist in forming and training town and county militias (established by official act of town and county elected representatives). We want our chapters to organize themselves as a working model that we can then take to other veterans organizations, such as the VFW, American Legion, Marine Corps League, etc. in each town and help them establish such teams within their already existing veterans halls. And likewise, to serve as a model and training cadre to help churches, neighborhood watches, and any other civic organization organize.

Protect your children from controversial topics being brought up in your child's school

A new program at your child's school to create a "safe" and "welcoming" environment may sound like a good idea. However, as one Illinois mother found, the program may be neither safe nor welcoming of your religious views.

It all began when Tammy Schulz received an invitation to a "Welcoming Schools" presentation at her local elementary school. As the mother of elementary age children attending public school, Schulz knew enough to be wary of the program topic—"How to address school bullying"—thanks to an article she read in Focus on the Family Citizen® magazine, featuring parents who successfully resisted curricula promoting homosexuality under the guise of "anti-bullying" and "safe schools." With a little digging, Schulz learned the group introducing the program at her school had ties to a national activist group dedicated to promoting homosexuality in public schools. She joined with other moms to get more information and, to their dismay, they learned that a training program was already being implemented, with homosexuality as a topic of emphasis in the elementary school.

Even more disturbing was the discovery of a program document listing "perceived obstacles" to the program, including "family values" and "faith systems."

"It's a political agenda being shoved into my school," Schulz said, "to normalize homosexuality. I have the right to pass on my faith and my values to my children. It's as if the school is trying to 'correct' a value that our family holds. What business is it of theirs to try and change my family values?"

The bias Schulz and other parents encountered is increasingly common, as homosexual-themed "safe schools" initiatives are introduced in public schools across the country. You can read more about Schultz' story, find out steps you can take and access a resource on how parents can make their voices heard—respectfully and with solid facts—when such issues come up in public schools by going to TrueTolerance.org.

Tom Trento with United West has provided us with this YouTube video which was streamed live on September 19, 2013. This show is a look into the lives of Billy & Karen Vaughn, parents of fallen SEAL Team 6 warrior—Aaron Vaughn. The United West met the couple back in 2011, right after the horrible loss of Extortion 17, Chinook helicopter that was shot down by the Taliban in Afghanistan. This show gets our viewers and listeners caught up with the very busy life they have led as they battle with Congress, the Obama Administration and any others who get in their way to hold the US Government responsible for the failed ROE (Rules of Engagement) and the erroneous manner in which this war against Islamic jihad is being waged.
